Speakers include:

Joe Higgins, Socialist Party MEP for Ireland in the European Parliament, just elected for his marvellous track record. He played an active part in the Irish Ferries dispute, where bosses tried to exploit cheap labour. He exposed the Gamma bosses for cheating Turkish construction workers out of their pay – and won. He even went to jail for a month for trying to stop the iniquitous bin tax.

Rob Williams the Unite Convenor for Linamar car plant in Swansea sacked quite blatantly for being an effective class fighter. But under threat of all-out strike the bosses have been forced to reinstate him. Also speaking will be Visteon convenors from Belfast, Enfield and Basildon who led occupations of their factories.

Many others from both the public & private sectors will take the floor, like Keith Gibson one of the leaders of the 'illegal' Lindsey Oil Refinery strike, Justice for Cleaners, campaigning against bosses who ruthlessly exploit migrant labour, as well as contributions from PCS, RMT and UNISON activists and many more.

Come and join in the discussion. Take part in the workshops:

The Lindsey Strike: What actually happened?
 Fighting the BNP in the Workplace
 Crisis in the car industry
 Public Services: Stop the race to the bottom

Education for What?
 Lessons of the 1930s
 Do women suffer equal misery in the recession?
 Crisis in the Post Office

Lessons of NO2EU for the Trade Union Movement
